Lokkhi Terra Jazz Quartet to perform at Drik

A funky fusion of world music comes to Dhaka

Dhaka, 4 January 2012: The Lokkhi Terra Jazz Quartet will give Bangladesh an unplugged view of one of London's coolest bands when they perform at the Drik Roof top terrace on Friday, 6 January 2012 at 6pm.

The band is led by award winning pianist Kishon Khan, and also features the virtuoso Cuban vocalist and percussionist Javier Camilo, and maestro Cuban bassist Jimmy Martinez. Accompanying them is one of London's funkier drummers -Tansay Omar. Their repertoire will include Cuban classics, Afro-beat, samba and funky fusion of world music.

Twelve musicians are at the core of the band Lokkhi Terra and will mix traditions from around the world, using Bengali folk and groove as their starting points. They have all performed around the world at venues such as Ronnie Scotts, Royal Albert Hall, Royal Festival Hall, the House of Commons, Glastonbury and at Womad. They were one of the critics' choices at this year's Womad festival in the UK, and was the band chosen to perform at the closing ceremony of the South Asian Games 2010.

Lokkhi Terra's two albums No Visa Required, and Che Guevara's Rickshaw Diaries, received much critical acclaim around the world.

The event has been organized by Drik ,Droom café and supported by friends of Lokkhi Terra.
